because Coors beer is not sold in Nebraska. However, if Coors beers come to Nebraska then I'm sure it would be affected by this bill that they would have to comply with the law, they would have to comply as it is now. This would specifically designate territories. The same way if Olympia or any other came into the state. So you now know as much as I do and maybe you know more than I do. The other thing, the Fair Board, at the present time, correct me if I'm wrong Senator Johnson, they can sell beer? Huh? This would give the Fair Board the right to have a liquor license.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, I know you are responding to a question but I think debate should be limited to the amendment of Senator Stoney's. Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: We are limited specifically to Senator Stoney's proposal, right?

PRESIDENT: Yes. That's what, it is returned for his specific amendment. I don't know what else we could discuss.

SENATOR KOCH: Well I'll bring it back then against E & R for another amendment.

PRESIDENT: Alright. Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: We have not yet adopted Senator Stoney's amendment?

PRESIDENT: No. We have returned it for that purpose. That's what all the previous debate was all about.

SENATOR DICKINSON: I simply rise to support the amendment. I won't take any time. Let's vote.

PRESIDENT: Do you want to close Senator Stoney?

SENATOR STONEY: Mr. President, I won't waste any additional time. I think that the reason is obvious and I would call for the question, please.

PRESIDENT: Alright, the question is, the adoption of Senator Stoney's amendment, specific amendment. Record your vote. Have you voted? Record.

CLERK: 27 ayes. 8 nays.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted. Senator Stoney, would you move the bill?

SENATOR STONEY: Mr. President, I move the bill be advanced to the E & R for engrossing.

PRESIDENT: You heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. The bill is advanced.

CLERK: Mr. President, I still have some more motions on 204. May I read some material into the tape.

PRESIDENT: Yes.
